

The story of Tarnished is different from most RPG games. Tarnished is a drama that intertwines the story of three different races – humans, dwarves and elves – that occupy the vast landscape of a world between the two lands. The story of Tarnished consists of three different prequels, for a total of six story arcs. As you explore the vast world, the beautiful, and the terrifying Lands Between, you will meet the heroes of the story and learn the “Tarnished” that their fame and power were tarnished by their own greed and pride. ABOUT THE GAME: Gravity Rush is a bold adventure featuring unique gameplay that lets you harness gravity to swing from rooftop to rooftop, glide down the sides of towering skyscrapers, and even slow down time itself. Use your gravity-powered abilities to solve one of the most intriguing mysteries of Gravity Rush: Why was Kat taking flying lessons in the first place? Why was the mysterious man called Rem speaking out of turn? And what’s going on with the frost giants and the foreboding cloud creature? As you explore Gravity Rush’s vast world, you’ll uncover its many mysteries as you search for clues and confront untold perils. ABOUT NIS AMERICA: NIS America Inc. The “Charlie Calling A Different Drummer” pregame show, featuring Armed Forces Bowl radio broadcasts, will begin airing the week of Dec. 24 (5 a.m. - 12 p.m., ETV USA Network) and will include commentary from living military veterans, including those from the Navy, Air Force, Marines and Army, giving listeners a glimpse into their experiences in war and their unique point of view from the comfort of their own home. “The entire Armed Forces Bowl team wanted to take this time to celebrate the sacrifices our men and women in uniform have made for our country and we are proud to work with Charlie Gilliam to honor them on the morning of every Armed Forces Bowl broadcast,” said Armed Forces Bowl Executive Director Jason Wooton. “It brings so much pride to see the soldiers we honor so often on air.” Charlie Gilliam is co-host of “The Charlie Calling A Different Drummer Show” on the Joe Davis Sports 1340 AM/95.5 FM radio network and currently in his fourth season as the host and managing editor of the show. He has worked as an anchor, reporter and producer with WAPT-TV in Jackson, Miss., the largest commercial TV station in Mississippi, winning the Mississippi Association of Broadcasters “Outstanding Newscast” in 2011.Q: Add properties to a json response with Restkit I'm using RestKit to send a POST request to an api. The server returns us a response in json with about 60 properties but I only ever want a few of them. I'd just like the result to contain [firstname, lastname] or something more concise. Is this possible? I'm kind of unclear on if Restkit is even attempting the wrapping of the property values? A: You can use a RKValueTransform. This is a class that you can add as a transform to a RKResponseDescriptor (which is what you create when you use +POST:parametersWithParameters
